COURSE DESCRIPTION

The legal profession is based on knowledge of law and its applications. Those who pursue these 'vocations' collectively form a body of individuals qualified to practice law in particular jurisdictions. The learned occupation of these individuals is to study, promote, uphold, and enforce the collection of rules imposed by the authority. This can be done in the court of law (becoming a Litigator) or outside the court of law (becoming a consultant or a legal advisor).

A Lawyer is a person qualified by education, training, and work experience working at a law office, corporation, governmental agency, or other entity and who performs specifically delegated substantive legal work like litigating, arbitrating, negotiating, conciliating, and moderating matters for a party that has arisen between two parties. These matters can be classified as civil or criminal; therefore, lawyers generally take up civil or criminal cases. Further, practising lawyers can specialize in the following types of laws: Constitutional and administrative law, Criminal law, Contract law, Labour law, Company law, Tort law, Property law, Tax law, Trust law, Family law, Personal law, Etc.
